

Metal Dealer's Licences – Conditions

Orkney Islands Council

Civic Government (Scotland) Act 1982

Air Weapons and Licensing (Scotland) Act 2015

Note: It is a criminal offence in terms of section 7(2) of the Civic Government (Scotland) Act 1982 to fail to comply with any condition imposed on this licence.

1.	The licence is valid until the date shown on the licence, which must be displayed clearly within the premises so that it can be seen by members of the public.
2.	A Metal Dealer when acting as such shall have with him/her at all times the identification issued to him/her by the Council and shall, when requested, permit any person to inspect the same and to note the writing thereon. The identification and licence must not be altered, erased or defaced in any way, must be kept clean and legible and must not be lent or used by any other person. Should the identification or licence be lost or become defaced or illegible or require to be replaced for any other reason, the licence holder shall within 5 days obtain a replacement from the Council on payment of the appropriate fee.
3.	The licence holder shall notify the Council of any material change of circumstances affecting him/her or any other person or company named on the licence or affecting the activity to which the licence relates. A licence holder who ceases to act as such for the unexpired period of the licence or whose licence has been suspended by the Council shall, within 7 days, return the licence to the Council.
4.	The licence holder shall comply with all legislative provisions affecting his/her trade or premises, each place occupied by him/her for the purposes of his/her business as a Metal Dealer, any metal store kept by him/her and any processing of metal which s/he may carry out or have carried out on his/her behalf. S/he shall comply with the relevant provisions of the Civic Government (Scotland) Act 1982 as amended and any orders made thereunder.

1 September 2016.

Updated: 2018-05-25.