

Orkney Museum: Accessibility Information

Wheel chair access to Orkney Museum is available from Tankerness House Gardens located at the rear of the building entered from Tankerness Lane, between the museum and Royal Bank of Scotland. Ground floor rooms 1, 2 and 3, gift shop and toilet (disabled) accessible.

Individual single stair-lift to first floor on main stairway, wheelchair provided at 1st floor level. Further short stair lift to Medieval and Merchant Lairds galleries with additional wheelchair. Altogether 8 rooms on 1st floor level.

19th and 20th century galleries may be entered from Broad Street with the assistance of on duty Custodian (required to open secure door) contact 01856 873191 or inform at museum shop.

Hearing loop in museum shop. Film's, photographs and audio recordings located within the galleries, largest collection in the 20th century gallery.