Child Performance Licences

Do any of the following apply to the performance/activity in question?

- Charge taken for admission.
- On licenced premises.
- Live broadcast.
- Recorded with the intention to be broadcasted at a later stage.
- Modelling or sporting activity in which the child, or other person, receives payments.

No licence is required. If a performance, will always be subject to conditions in the Children (Performances and Activities) (Scotland) Regulations 2014 at 19-24.

Does an exemption apply?

Yes → No licence is required.

No → Licence is required.

Exemptions include:
1. Audition.
2. School production.
4. A performance which would have required a licence but is exempt under s37 of the Children and Young Person Act 1963 because:
   a) No payment is received (apart from expenses) and,
   b) Child not required to be absent from school or,
   c) Has not taken part in a licensable performance on more than 3 days in the past 6 months.

No licence is required.

Yes

No licence is required.

If a performance, will always be subject to conditions in the Children (Performances and Activities) (Scotland) Regulations 2014 at 19-24.

Yes

No licence is required.

If a performance, will always be subject to conditions in the Children (Performances and Activities) (Scotland) Regulations 2014 at 19-24.

No

Licence is required.

All restrictions and requirements under the 2014 regulations must be considered by the local authority when granting a licence.