Services

It is understood that the plot is serviced to the extent noted in the table above, but this is not guaranteed. The prospective purchasers will be required to inspect the plot to ensure that they have the necessary connections and to make appropriate arrangements with the statutory undertakers and to seek all necessary consents and permissions.

Planning and Permitted Use

Full planning permission will be required prior to settlement of the transaction and any development.

For planning advice please contact a Planning Adviser on 01856873535 or email: planning@orkney.gov.uk.

The Garson, Stromness Development Brief was adopted by the Council on 1 March 2011. A copy of the brief is available on the Council's website at: <https://www.orkney.gov.uk/Service-Directory/D/garson---stromness-development-brief.htm>.

Pre-Emption Rights

In particular there will be a condition in the title deed whereby the purchaser shall be bound to complete their building, both inside and outside, so as to be ready and certified for occupation within three years of the date of entry specified in the Disposition. The purchaser shall not have the power of sale without a completed dwelling house having been erected within three years of the date of entry, unless they have first offered to sell the site back to the Council:

(A) at the price at which the plot was purchased from the Council, in the event of the purchaser wishing to sell their plot before the building has commenced; or

(B) at the price to be determined by the District Valuer, in the event of the purchaser wishing to sell their plot at any time after building has commenced but has not been completed within three years of the date of entry.

Availability

The plot will only be available for sale to private individuals wishing to build a single dwelling house for their own residential use. Offers from builders (including companies, partnerships, sole traders and developers) will not be considered.

Entry

To be agreed.
