

Itinerant Metal Dealer's Licences – Conditions

Orkney Islands Council

Civic Government (Scotland) Act 1982

Air Weapons and Licensing (Scotland) Act 2015

Note: It is a criminal offence in terms of section 7(2) of the Civic Government (Scotland) Act 1982 to fail to comply with any condition imposed on this licence.

|    |   |
|----|---|
| 1. | The licence holder shall carry on his/her business only on the following days of the week:  |
|    |   |
|    | and between the following hours each day:   |
|    |   |
| 2. | The licence holder shall comply with all legislative provisions affecting his/her trade and in particular the relevant provisions of the Civic Government (Scotland) Act 1982 as amended and any orders made thereunder.  |
| 3. | Where the licence holder is a tenant of, or resides in, a local authority dwelling house, no metal dealing business shall be carried out from the place of residence without the written consent of the Council.  |
| 4. | No metal should be kept or stored in the house or grounds of the licence holder.  |
| 5. | An Itinerant Metal Dealer when acting as such shall have with him/her at all times the identification issued to him/her by the Council and shall, when requested, permit any person to inspect the same and to note the writing thereon. The identification and licence must not be altered, erased or defaced in any way, must be kept clean and legible and must not be lent or used by any other person. Should the identification or licence be lost or become defaced or illegible or require to be replaced for any other reason, the licence holder shall within 5 days obtain a replacement from the Council on payment of the appropriate fee. |
| 6. | The licence holder shall notify the Council of any material change of circumstances affecting him/her or any other person or company named on the licence or affecting the activity to which the licence relates. A licence holder who ceases to act as such for the unexpired period of the licence or whose licence has been suspended by the Council shall, within 7 days, return the licence to the Council.  |

1 September 2016.

Updated: 2018-05-25.