

Working out your Local Housing Allowance if you are severely disabled

Local Housing Allowance is a way of working out new claims for Housing Benefit for tenants renting accommodation from a private landlord.

It also affects tenants already getting Housing Benefit who move into accommodation rented from a private landlord.

Local Housing Allowance was introduced on 7 April, 2008. Local Housing Allowance will not affect people living in Council accommodation or rented from the Orkney Housing Association.

To work out how much benefit you might get you need to find out what Local Housing Allowance rate your benefit will be based on.

If you are severely disabled, or live with a severely disabled partner, and have no dependent children, your benefit will be based on the one bedroom Local Housing Allowance rate.

For more information, please get in touch with us at the address below.

You can find out what the Local Housing Allowance room rates are by checking leaflet HB(LHA)5. You can get this from us at the address below or by visiting our website at www.orkney.gov.uk

You also need to find out if you can get the full amount of benefit. The amount of benefit you can get may be affected by:

- any money you have coming in;
- any savings you have;
- how much your rent is;
- if you share paying the rent with someone else.

For more information about this, please get in touch with us at the address below.

Non-dependants

If you claim benefit you can only get it for yourself and your family. If you share a property with someone who is not part of your family, your benefit may be reduced. This is because we may expect them to pay towards your rent.

For more information about this, please get in touch with us at the address below.

Joint tenants

If you are a joint tenant this might affect the benefit you can get. For more information about joint tenants, please get in touch with us at the address below.

What if my rent is less than the Local Housing Allowance rate that applies to me?

If your rent is up to £15 less than the Local Housing Allowance rate that applies to you, any benefit you might get will still be based on this rate. If your rent is more than £15 less than the Local Housing Allowance rate that applies to you, any benefit you may get will be based on a lower rate.

You should note that with effect from April 2011 you will not be entitled to receive this additional payment of up to £15.

For details about this, please see HB(LHA)6 Local Housing Allowance: rights and responsibilities.
